well-known personal feeling against Mr. Roosevelt has led him, perhaps unconsciously, into an erroneous statement.

Statement Not Credited. There is no doubt that Mr. Roosevel favored the sending of an American squadron to a point where it would be within striking distance of the Spanish but those who are familiar with his Navy discount the idea that he was anxious for the United States to commit an overt act of war, such as Mr. Long

The article in question is distinguished by the unreserve of its comment on Mr. Roosevelt as Assistant Secretary of the It has excited the keenest atrelations between Secretary Long and The particular charge that Mr. Roosevelt and some of the naval officers were anxious to send a squadron war to sink the Spanish ships has been

Health,

Some people say: "Coffee don't hurt me," and then add: "Anyway I only drink one cup a day."

If coffee really don't hurt why not drink more? There is but one answer and that is coffee does hurt them and they know it. When they drink it once a day they compromise with their enemy. There are people whom one cup of coffee a day will put in bed, if the habit be continued.
